d. JEWELRY

- i. Jewelry is not permitted; players must remove all jewelry before the start of a game.
- ii. If jewelry is not removed, a yellow card will be assessed.

7. FOULS & PENALTIES

a. SPECTATORS

- i. Spectators who interfere with play are subject to earn their team a yellow card and ejection from the Student Recreation and Wellness Center.
- ii. Teams are responsible for their spectators. Poor spectator behavior may cause a team to receive a "1 or 2" behavior rating.

b. ZERO TOLERANCE POLICY

- i. Alcohol and drugs are not allowed at ASI Intramural Sports games. If a player or fan is under the influence, they will be ejected immediately and disciplinary action may follow. If an ASI Intramural Sports supervisor feels that there is a threat to participant safety or suspects that a team might be under the influence, they are required to stop the game immediately. If there is no proof of substance use, the game will be rescheduled for another time.

PLAYING THE GAME

1. GAME LENGTH

- a. A regulation game shall consist of seven innings or 50 minutes, whichever comes first. No new inning may start after 50 minutes. Tie games will remain a tie during the regular season. Extra innings will only take place in the playoffs.
- b. A 12-run rule is in effect for all games, except play off Championship games. If a team is ahead by 12 or more runs after 4 innings or 45 minutes, the game shall end.
- c. Extra innings will be played with international tie breaker rules. Each extra inning will start with one out and the last player out from the previous inning occupying second base.
 - i. Extra innings only applies to playoffs.
- d. Games become official after four complete innings.

2. LINEUP

- a. The team captain must submit a batting lineup before the start of the game.
- b. Teams may bat an unlimited number of players.
- c. Once a batting line-up is submitted, it is final.
 - i. Players arriving late can be added to the bottom of the lineup.
 - ii. If a player in the batting order is injured, ejected, or absent (leaves early), then there will be NO SUBSTITUTIONS ALLOWED. The team will take an out each time the player(s) position comes up.

3. PITCHING

- a. Home plate will consist of a plate and a plate extension. Any legal pitch not swung at that hits any part of the plate or the plate extension will be called a strike. A runner should touch any part of the plate extension.
- b. The pitching plate will be located 50 feet from home plate. Pitchers must start with at least one foot in contact with the pitcher's plate. One foot must remain in contact with the pitcher's plate until the ball is released.
- c. A legal pitch must be delivered with a perceptible arc and reach a height of at least 6 feet from the ground, while not exceeding a maximum height of 12 feet from the ground.
 - i. Pitches not meeting these requirements will be called illegal pitches. Illegal pitches remain live and all batters may swing at their own risk. Illegal pitches not swung at will be ruled automatic balls.
 - ii. Arguing the height requirement of pitches with the umpire is considered "arguing balls and strikes" and will result in an ejection from the game.

4. BATTING

- a. Each batter will start with a 1-1 count. With two strikes, each batter is allowed one uncaught foul ball. A second uncaught foul ball with two strikes will result in a strikeout.
 - i. If the pitcher desires to walk a batter intentionally, then the umpire will offer the next batter a choice of taking first base or continuing to bat.
- b. ORDER
 - i. The batting order cannot be changed once the game has started.
- c. THROWING THE BAT
 - i. Batters are subject to ejection from a game and an out charged to their team if they let the bat slip from their hands more than once or throw the bat intentionally.
- d. BUNTING
 - i. Batters are immediately out if they bunt or chop the ball downward. The ball is dead and no runners may advance.
- e. HOME RUNS
 - i. No more than five home runs per team in any one inning will be allowed. Each homerun after this limit will be ruled an out.
- f. STRIKEOUTS
 - i. Two fouls after two strikes is an out.

5. BASERUNNING

- a. If a fair ball touches a base runner in fair territory before the ball has touched or passed all infielders, other than the pitcher, the ball is dead, the runner is out, and the batter is awarded first base.
- b. There is no stealing. There is no leading-off. If a runner leaves their base prior to the batter making contact, they will be automatically out.
- c. SLIDING
 - i. A base runner may slide feet first going directly into a base.

- ii. Runners may dive to a base they have already reached when necessary.

d. FIRST BASE

- i. A second bag will be placed next to first base in foul territory. For all plays at first base, the batter will touch the outside bag. If the batter touches any part of the inside base, they will be called out regardless of the outcome of the play.
- ii. On base hits to the outfield, the batter may touch the inside bag while rounding first base.

e. HOME PLATE

- i. There will be a line (extension of first base line) that runners attempting to score must cross. Plays at home will be force plays on the plate (not the plate extension).
- ii. Runners may never touch home plate or the white extension of home plate. They will be ruled out if they do so.

f. COMMIT RULE

- i. Any runner crossing the commit line two-thirds of the way between third base and home plate may not return to third and must go home.
- ii. Upon the runner crossing the line, the play at home becomes an automatic force play. The catcher may also tag the runner and they will be ruled out.

g. INFIELD FLY

- i. A fair fly ball that, in the judgment of the umpire, can be caught by an infielder, pitcher, or catcher with ordinary effort and when there are runners on first and second or first, second and third and less than two outs.
- ii. When the umpire calls "infield fly" the batter is out, regardless of whether the ball is subsequently caught or dropped. The ball is live, and runners already on base may advance (at their own risk) if the ball is not caught or tag up and advance if it is caught.

h. OVERTHROWS AND DEAD BALLS

- i. If the ball is thrown into dead ball territory at first, third, or home as described by the umpire prior to the game, the runner being played upon is awarded one base from the point where the ball was released. All other runners shall be entitled to the same number of bases as the runner on whom the play was made.
- ii. On overthrows remaining in play, the runners may advance at their own risk.
- iii. If a ball strikes any permanent structure or rolls under a fence and has not been played upon, it shall be considered a dead ball and the base runner will receive one base as mentioned before.

i. INTERFERENCE

- i. A runner who has been forced out must allow the fielder attempting to complete the double play a clear throw to the base. Failure to do so will result in the automatic completion of the double play.

6. COED RULES

- a. In a coed game of 10 versus 10, a team must have at least three females on the field at a time.
- b. If a team only has two females, they must play with nine players.

- c. Free Agent teams are an exception to this rule. If they have one female they can still play with nine players on the field.
- d. There must be at least two female players in the infield at all times.
- e. Teams must alternate gender in the batting order. This applies even if there are an uneven number of male and female players.
- f. During the pitch, the catcher must stay behind the catcher's line, which is three yards behind home plate.

7. ADDITIONAL RULES

- a. No Designated Catchers: There are no designated catchers. All teams must supply their own catcher. If a team is short players, they must play short-handed in the field.
- b. Over-running first base: To be in jeopardy of being put out, the batter-runner crossing first base must make an effort to advance towards second. Merely turning to the left in returning to first base does not necessarily constitute an effort.
- c. When homerun is hit, someone from team at bat must retrieve the ball.
- d. Dugouts/Fans: All spectators must remain in the stands and are not permitted on the field or in the dugouts. All offensive players and coaches must remain in the dugout with exception of batter, on-deck batter, and base coaches.
